Greetings:

Quilters,

Hope you had a wonderful Christmas and happy new year. With the cold weather and snow, now is a good time to get out your quilt projects and finish them. I am getting out the Karen Kay Buckley project from September.

January meeting is the yard sale, there may be something you were looking for. Charity quilters will be meeting January 28. All members welcome. Quilt show meeting will be starting up, so check for dates or contact Cindy Craddock (meeting info) if you would like to help.

This year I will not be here for the next 3 meeting for I am going to Arizona. Cindy Campbell will be taking over. If you need to reach me, do so by email. Have a wonderful winter and I will stay in touch.

Happy Quilting,

- Nancy Jarrett, SVQG president

Newsletter note

A few members mentioned not finding the meeting minutes in the previous newsletters. To find the prior meeting minutes, click on the prior month's Meeting Minutes under Quick Links (to the left) and the document should open on your computer. In this issue, the same will happen with Treasurer's Report and Quilt Show meeting. Clicking on Website or Facebook Page should take you to those sites.

When selecting the details under In This Issue, you should be directed to that section within the newsletter.

I hope this helps every ne find their way around the newsletter.

December Meeting Recap

Christmas Party

We had a great turnout for the December Christmas Party. The food was good and plenty. Thanks to the hospitality girls for a great spread. The chicken was superb. We had five winners in the Ugliest Sweater Contest, but there really weren't any "ugly" sweater. Maybe a little

"CRAZY."

25 members participated in the Christmas Ornament exchange. We got some new ideas for homemade Christmas ornaments that we will be looking at for our Christmas in July meeting.

January Meetings

January 18, 2017 - Quilt Show meeting - more information here.

January 26, 2017, Meeting and Annual Yard Sale

Please join your friends or bring your own table full of quilting/sewing related items to sell. As a vendor you will man your own table(s) and collect money for your own sales.

We will have a table of "For Sale" items left over from the Quilt Show's Quilter's Corner and that money will go to the guild.

January 28th Charity Quilt Workshop, 9:00 a.m. to finish quilts and decide where to donate them.

Upcoming Guild Events

February 23, 2017 Meeting and Quilting 101

At our latest Quilting 101 we will have Pat Coulter who will show us how to make Thangles. Also, Darlene Baird will teach us the correct way to use our rotary cutters.

Cindy Campbell will have a fun table to present and we are still searching for a fourth offering.

Looking ahead:

May workshop with Bloomsburg Quilt Guild

At the December meeting, I announced that we would be having a joint workshop with the Bloomsburg Quilt Guild. We neglected to notice that the date we chose was Mother's Day weekend, and the instructor is not available. So we are trying to coordinate another date.

Details will be posted as soon as they are confirmed.

July 27, 2017 Meeting/Program

We will be celebrating Christmas in July. We will have several members show and tell their homemade Christmas Ornaments (as seen at the Christmas Party). Pat Coulter will show her "beaded" ornaments and Nancy Jarrett will show her "fold & stitch" ornament.

October 26, 2017 Meeting/Program

At our regular Thursday meeting, Pat and Arlan Christ will present one of their quilt shows titled Revival of the 1930's with about 30 quilts on display.
